Myambi's Second Chance

Writer and Illustrator of Myambi's Second Chance, 2007.

Orphaned by civil war and AIDS, brothers Myambi and Enoch walk from their village to Kampala where they survive by delivering bags of charcoal and begging for food. Then they are rescued by Watoto Child Care Ministries and become part of a family of six other orphaned children and a house mother. In their new home they are provided with love, nourishment, healthcare and education. They learn that they matter and that God cares.

All proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated to Watoto Child Care Ministries, Kampala, Uganda.
